

5th Annual Northern Illinois Football Officiating Mechanics Camp

Classroom and On Field Instruction with some of the Top Local High School Football Officials and Top Area Teams!

LEVEL II

The Northern Illinois Football Officiating Mechanics Camp is designed to provide classroom, on field training and instruction to football officials of all levels. This Level II Certified IHSA Officiating Camp is an excellent opportunity for officials to receive one on one instruction while officiating live playing action. All attendees will earn 10 IHSA playoff power points for the 2010 season.

Each official, beginner or veteran, will be provided with:

- IHSA recommend football mechanics
- Observation / Critique by IHSA Certified Clinicians and Playoff Officials
- Emphasis on mechanics and judgment while officiating live playing action
- Classroom instruction on IHSA mechanics Date: Thursday, June 16, 2010; Location: Fairfield INN & Suites, 645 W. North Ave (SE side of I355 and North Ave) Lombard IL 60148

Camp Format: The camp offers classroom instruction as well as on field game like conditions with other officials. Each attendee will officiate live action football consisting of either 7 on 7 Passing League (Non Contact) or Full Contact Scrimmages with local high school teams (depending on availability). Officiating contest is not required to receive credit for a Level II clinic but is highly encouraged. In order to receive IHSA clinic credit, you must attend the class room session on June 16th. Food and soft drinks will be provided at this session. If you are unable to make the June 16th classroom session but are still interested in attending the camp, please contact Tim Kiefer (630) 464-4134, timothyckiefer@comcast.net to work out alternate arrangements if possible.

Cost: The cost of the camp is $95.00 which includes all instruction and materials.

Deadline: Registration due by Wednesday, June 9, 2010
